

It was Isabel's first day of school. She woke up and put on her favorite shirt- the one with the rainbow on it. Then she ate her breakfast and got her new purple backpack. Her mother drove her to the school and then Isabel walked into her classroom.

Isabel saw another girl putting away her backpack. The other girl walked over and said, "I like your shirt. I have a rainbow shirt at home, too!"

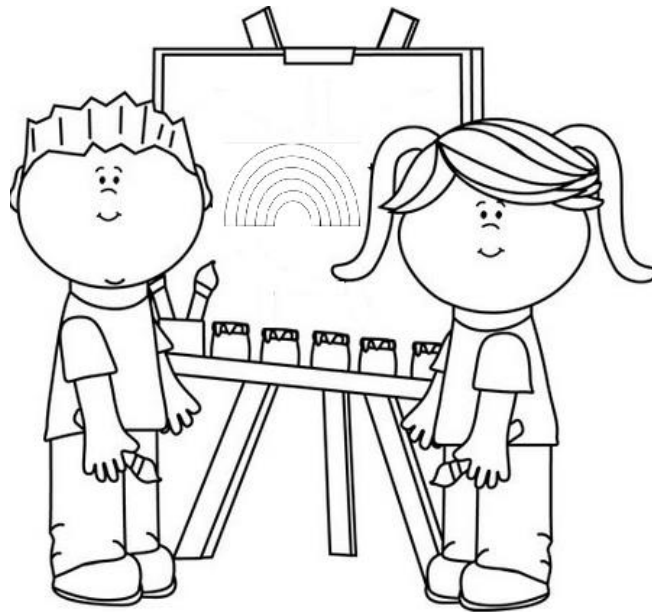

What can Isabel say next?

After she puts away her backpack, Isabel goes over to play blocks with some other children. When she sits down, one child says, "We're already using the blocks. You can't use them."

What can Isabel say?

After a while, Isabel goes to the art area. She starts painting a picture. A little boy comes over and watches her paint. Then he asks, "What are you painting?" Isabel says, "I'm painting a rainbow!" He looks at the picture again and asks, "Why would you paint that?"

What can Isabel say next?

Soon it's time for snack. Isabel sits next to a girl who says, "I like playing outside. It's really fun!"

What can Isabel say next?

Then the boy next to her says, "I have 3 pet cats!"

What can Isabel say next?

Another boy at the table says, "We're all drinking milk!"

What can Isabel say next?

Soon, it's time for Isabel to go home. She had a lot of fun at school and liked talking to her friends, but its always fun to go home too!

